BROTHER & SISTER

a film by Jan Krüger
Germany 2016 · 90 min

Neukölln, a trendy district in Berlin, where cheap apartments are hard to find. To get a flat, one needs salary proof and guarantees. Thies knows the game. He works for a real estate management and strictly follows the rules. Until he meets Bruno and Sonia, two unequal siblings. He gets them a free apartment underhand – and begins an affair with Bruno. Step by step, he delves deeper into the mystery of the brother and his sister.

Jan Krüger's forth film after En route (2004), Light Gradient (2009) and Looking for Simon (2011) combines fairytale motifs, a romantic three-way relationship, and the fate of refugees into an urban study of freedom.
